“FACT SHEET”

“Building A Stronger Community...One Story at a Time”

WNC is a non-profit organization that cares for our community by connecting partners and neighbors to provide daily necessities, resources and tools to those in need.

The annual WNC Bowlathon brings the community together while raising money and awareness for WNC, ensuring the necessary funding for fundamental programming.

This family friendly fun event will feature bowling, raffles, games, face painting, DJ, pizza, pop, sundae bar and more!

Your Assistance Benefits:

- Tens of thousands of essential household items at no cost to disadvantaged families throughout the year at our 6500 square foot facility
- Enriched collaboration with multiple resource partners to empower families
- Christmas holiday meals to seniors and families (over 2.5K to date)
- Connection, education and information to the community through social media, website and newsletters
- Implementation of dozens of needs-based programs to assist impoverished community members including Spring Cleaning Supplies, Laundry Soap/Diapers, Mother's Day, Graduation, Adopt-a-Family, Birthday Bags, Kids Christmas Shopping, Fill the Bus School Supplies, English Learning Language (ELL), and Vehicle Transportation
- Engagement of volunteers in leadership opportunities and enrichment
- Investment in the development and growth of students to serve in a variety of capacities on the student leadership team, including a seat on WNC's Board of Directors

Want to Get Involved and Add Your Story?

WNC seeks passionate volunteers willing to utilize their professional skills to join this empowering team of community resources.
