

Explore the Next BIG IDEA to Embrace Waunakee's Creativity

Have you had fun at a past Imagination Celebration event?
Did you pick out a favorite Train on Main at Wauktoberfest?
Do you enjoy businesses like Gather and Lone Girl Brewing?

These and more are part of Waunakee's Creative Economy!
We want to hear from YOU about how we can continue to support and develop this important part of our community.

Upcoming Community-Wide Conversations

Sunday, February 18 | 5-7 p.m.

Monday, February 26 | 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Location:
The Village Center
333 S. Madison St.

These public conversations are part of a partnership between the Village of Waunakee, the Creative Economy Initiative Task Force, and the Bolz Center for Arts Administration at UW-Madison. For more information about these meetings, contact Creative Intern Sarah Bluvas at creative@waunakee.com. Learn more about the Creative Economy Initiative at www.waunakee-ed.com/creativeeconomy.
